

Badger Mutual Insurance Women's Amateur

2023 Champion
Mallory Swartz

We are celebrating our 25th year and we need your help to make this year's event the most successful ever. Since 1999, the Bader Mutual Women's Amateur Tournament has given all the net proceeds raised to local non-profit organizations focused on the needs of women and children.

Together, over the past 24 years, this event has raised over $345,000 to improve the lives of families in Southeast Wisconsin. Last year, $28,000 was raised for Sojourner Family Peace Center and LOTUS Legal Clinic. We will again donate all our net proceeds to those two organizations in order that they can continue to improve the lives of so many. They need your help today more than ever.

The Badger Mutual Insurance Women's Amateur (BMIWA) is now one of Wisconsin's most highly recognized women's amateur golf tournaments. The tournament is a two-day, 18-hole stroke play event with a silent auction and prizes for flight winners at an awards luncheon.

The Brown Deer Women's Golf League, consisting of 58 members, organizes, operates the tournament and actively raises funds. Badger Mutual Insurance provides website, staff support and underwriting costs for this state-wide event. This unique collaboration of support allows us to recruit talented golf athletes; the 2020 Champion, Mackenzie Hahn (now on the LPGA tour), three-time Champion, Bobbi Stricker (2018, 2019, and 2021), the 2022 Champion Isabelle Maleki and the 2023 Champion Mallory Swartz.

The success of our tournament is a result of the unwavering support and generosity of sponsors, donors, and golfers. The effect of your generosity is multiplied by the local non-profit organizations that use the proceeds from this event and give hope to so many families in our community.
